FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear St. Mary's Parishioners:

No doubt, most of us know someone who has succumbed to the coronavirus. A week or so ago, I was scanning articles on the Catholic News Agency website, when one article caught my eye: "Nine Catholic bishops with COVID-19 die in a single week". As I read the article, I learned that between January 8th and 15th, nine bishops across three continents died after testing positive for COVID-19. The bishops ranged in age from 53 years old to 91. As I read through the names of those who died, I realized that I had known one of them. Indeed, I had even mentioned him in this column on September 6th when I wrote about a visit I made with some other young men to Romania in the early nineties when I was discerning a call to the priesthood and studying theology in Rome. In the summer of 1993, I think it was, we visited Romania guided by Father Florentin Crihălmeanu, a young priest from the Eastern Catholic Diocese of Cluj-Napoca. Ordained in 1990, Fr. Florentin had been completing his studies in Rome when he accompanied our group to his homeland for a week-long visit.

After that summer trip, Florentin returned to Rome for one more year. When he completed his studies in 1994, he returned to Romania to teach in the Eastern Catholic seminary in Cluj-Napoca. In 1996, Pope John Paul II ordained Fr. Florentin to serve as auxiliary bishop of the Diocese of Cluj-Gherla. At 38 years old, Florentin was the youngest bishop in the world at the time. In 2002, Bishop Crihălmeanu was made the bishop of the same diocese where he served as auxiliary, Cluj-Gherla, until his death earlier this month. Apparently, on January 4th, Bishop Crihălmeanu was diagnosed with the mild case of the coronavirus. He was treated by a physician and sent to be quarantined under the care of a community of religious sisters. Unfortunately, his condition worsened and he died on January 12th.

When I sent the news to a friend of mine with whom I studied in Rome and with whom we travelled together with Florentin to Romania in the summer of 1993, my friend was just as shocked as I was to learn about Florentin's death. My friend emailed me a couple of articles in Romanian about Florentin that I was able to translate into English with the help of an on-line translation tool. One of the articles he sent, articulated 61 interesting facts about Bishop Florentin, one fact for each year of his life. I will share just a few. Florentin's mother was Roman Catholic and his father Greek (or Eastern) Catholic. His sister is a nun. After college, Florentin served in the army like most Romanian men were required to do at the time. (Romania was liberated in 1989 from Communist rule.) Eventually, Florentin began his studies for the Eastern Catholic priesthood and was ordained a priest in 1990 in Unirii Square in Cluj. As I noted in my September 6th article, the places of worship of the Romanian Church united with Rome (Eastern Catholic Church) had been confiscated by the communists in 1948 when Orthodox Christianity was made the official religion of the country. During his time as bishop, Florentin managed to oversee the construction of new Eastern Catholic churches. Through everything, Bishop Florentin maintained his child-like heart. RIP Florentin Crihălmeanu.

In Christ,
Father Berg

Please call the parish office or email Sandra at: sandra@stmarysvacaville.com for the next baptismal class or for additional baptism information.

Please register at the parish office before attending the pre-baptismal class.

In the Gospel today we read that because Jesus spoke with authority his reputation spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee. As his disciples, we can also speak with authority when we put our faith into actions by helping the poor and suffering.

Have you considered answering the call to serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

CUARTO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

31 de enero de 2021

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados Feligreses de Santa María:

Sin duda, la mayoría de nosotros conocemos a alguien que se ha sucumbido al coronavirus. Hace una semana más o menos, estaba echando un vistazo a artículos en el sitio web de la Agencia Católica de Noticias, cuando un artículo me llamó la atención: "Nueve obispos católicos con COVID-19 mueren en una sola semana". Al continuar leyendo el artículo, me enteré de que entre el 8 y el 15 de enero, nueve obispos de tres continentes murieron después de dar positivo por COVID-19. Los obispos tenían entre las edades de 53 años y los 91 años. Al leer los nombres de los que murieron, me di cuenta de que había conocido a uno de ellos. De hecho, incluso lo había mencionado en esta columna el 6 de septiembre cuando escribí sobre una visita que hice con otros jóvenes a Rumania a principios de los años noventa, cuando estaba discerniendo el llamado al sacerdocio y estudiaba teología en Roma. En el verano de 1993, creo que fue, visitamos Rumania guiada por el Padre Florentin Crihălmeanu, un joven sacerdote de la Diócesis Católica Oriental de Cluj-Napoca. Ordenado en 1990, el Padre Florentin había estado completando sus estudios en Roma cuando acompañó a nuestro grupo a su tierra natal para una visita que duró una semana.

Después de ese viaje de verano, Florentin regresó a Roma por un año más. Cuando completó sus estudios en 1994, regresó a Rumania para enseñar en el seminario Católico Oriental en Cluj-Napoca. En 1996, el Papa Juan Pablo II ordenó al Padre Florentin para servir como obispo auxiliar de la Diócesis de Cluj-Gherla. A la edad de 38 años, Florentin era el obispo más joven del mundo en ese momento. En el 2002, el obispo Crihălmeanu fue nombrado obispo de la misma diócesis donde sirvió como auxiliar, Cluj-Gherla, hasta su muerte a principios de este mes. Aparentemente, el 4 de enero, el obispo Crihălmeanu fue diagnosticado con un caso leve del coronavirus. Fue tratado por un médico y lo mandaron estar en cuarentena bajo el cuidado de una comunidad de hermanas religiosas. Desafortunadamente, su condición empeoró y murió el 12 de enero.

Cuando le envié la noticia a un amigo mío con quien estudié en Roma y con quien viajamos junto con Florentin a Rumania en el verano de 1993, mi amigo estaba tan sorprendido como yo al enterarse de la muerte de Florentin. Mi amigo me envió por correo electrónico un par de artículos en rumano sobre Florentin que pude traducir al inglés con la ayuda de una herramienta de traducción en línea. Uno de los artículos que envié, articulan 61 datos interesantes sobre el obispo Florentin, un dato por cada año de su vida. Compartiré sólo unos cuantos. La madre de Florentin era

Católica Romana y su padre Católico Griego (u oriental). Su hermana es monja. Después de la universidad, Florentin sirvió en el ejército como se les obligaba la mayoría de los hombres rumanos en ese momento. (Rumania fue liberada del régimen comunista en 1989.) Eventualmente, Florentin comenzó sus estudios para el sacerdocio Católico Oriental y fue ordenado sacerdote en 1990 en la Plaza Unirii en Cluj. Como mencioné en mi artículo del 6 de septiembre, los lugares de culto de la Iglesia Rumana se unieron a Roma (Iglesia Católica Oriental) habían sido confiscados por los comunistas en 1948, cuando el cristianismo ortodoxo se convirtió en la religión oficial del país. Durante su tiempo como obispo, Florentin logró supervisar la construcción de nuevas iglesias Católicas Orientales. A través de todo, el Obispo Florentin mantuvo su corazón de niño. Descanse en paz Florentin Crihălmeanu.

En Cristo,
Padre Berg
